Detroit Lions fans have been thrilled with the team's start to the season, and even the Michigan Humane Society's (MHS) adoptable cats are getting into the act. Although you'll have to wait until Sunday to see the 5-1 Detroit Lions take on the 3-3 Atlanta Falcons at Ford Field, Lions fans and pet lovers alike can help the little 'lions' at the MHS Berman Center for Animal Care, by playing online with the adoptable cats.

From now until Sunday, October 23, 2011, visitors to the MHS website can interact and play with adoptable cats and kittens online by controlling three toys that have been adorned with the Atlanta Falcons logo for the cats to bat around. Their "playing field" has also been filled with football-related toys and Lions gear. We won't know the winner of the Detroit Lions-Atlanta Falcons game until Sunday, but the outcome of this battle will never be in doubt!
